Juggernaut Wake Up

The Intellectual-Principle is established in multiplicity; its intellection, self-sprung though it be, is in the nature of something added to it some accidental dualism and makes it multiple: the utterly simplex, and therefore first of all beings, must, then, transcend the Intellectual-Principle; and, obviously, if this had intellection it would no longer transcend the Intellectual-Principle but be it, and at once be a multiple. But his motives may not be as malicious as they .
